Official Diary
(Acting DD/I)

Friday, 26 December 1952

1. Talked briefly to DCI about Italy and O/CI prediction on the coming elections.

25X1A2g Asked him about next week's briefing of Eisenhower and was informed that it would be devoted to [REDACTED] with only important highlights of intelligence developments covered. He stated that he would need no more for these latter than would be available to him in the usual Presidential Book. No one from the DD/I side would accompany DCI to New York on the 2nd; passed this along to Sheldon.

25X1A9a 2. Sheldon said that [REDACTED] had reported the clearing of J. F. Dulles.
25X9A5 No one has taken any action on [REDACTED] pending further word from DCI.
